GREEN TEAM EVENT AT THE GLENRIDGE EVENT

The focus of the 2019 Earth Day is “Protecting our Species”. The Glenridge Green Team invites you to help honor this theme by attending a special showing, on Earth Day, of the film “The Wild Orchid Man in the Devil’s Realm” produced by Daryl Saffer and featuring Sig Dalstrom. This film, fifth in a series, records another of Dalstrom’s worldwide searches for exotic orchids and wild animal species in largely inaccessible areas. Through art, music and wonderful scenery, this film introduces viewers to yet another unique local, the island of Tasmania. And, Glenridge is pleased to announce that Sig Dalstrom will be available to answer questions following the screening.

This free event will take place on Monday, April 22nd, at 10:30am in the theater at the Glenridge on Palmer Ranch, 7333 Scotland Way. The public is welcome. Please contact Susan Button at susanvinalbutton@gmail.com with any questions about this event.

On The Grounds

LIGUSTRUM (LIGUSTRUM JAPONICUM)

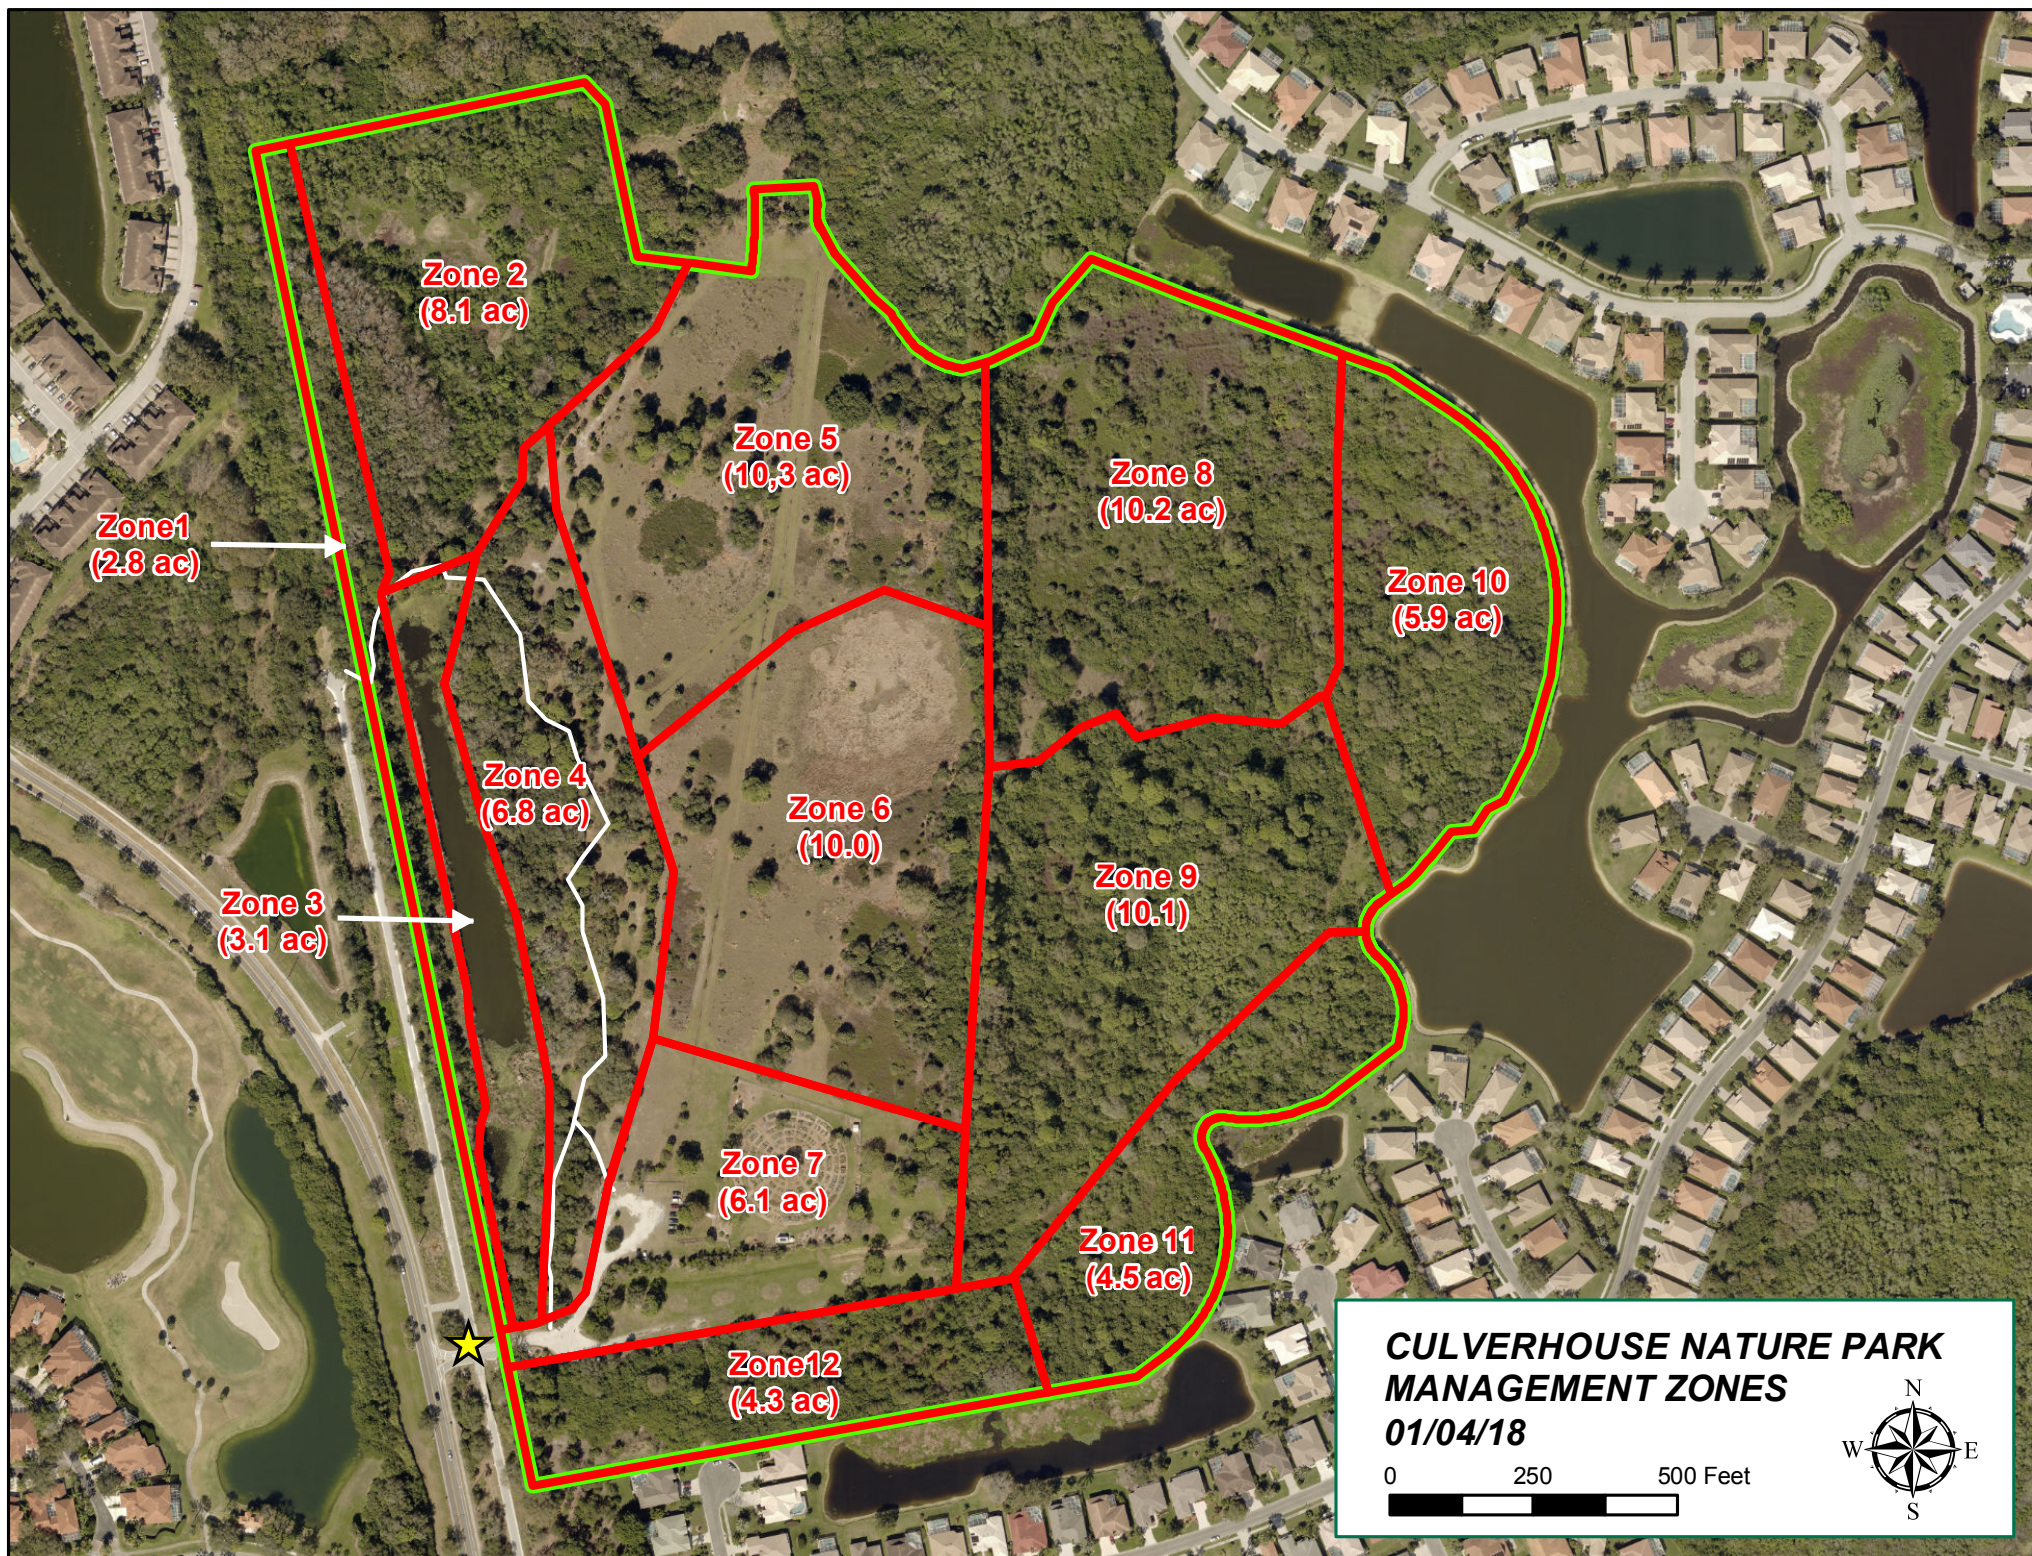

Although often used as a shrub or hedge the Ligustrum solos very nicely as a tree. The curved multiple trunks with glossy evergreen leaves on the upright, spreading branches create an interesting focus in the landscape. Standing as tall as 12 feet and often considerably wider, the mature Ligustrum can grow to 25 feet across. Small, white flowers appear during spring. The unpleasant smelling blooms are followed by abundant blue-black berries that are popular with birds.
